

A Guide to Chicago

A Guide to Chicago

Written and Designed By Emilia Shoup

A Guide to Chicago
is a book about a few of Chicago's best and most popular places to visit.

The City of Chicago is home not only to tall buildings with hussle and bussle, but it is home to a community of people and a history of the city reflected in its attractions.

Wrigley Field is the home of the Chicago Cubs.
Cubs fans are the life of the city during the baseball season as they fill the trains coming from the suburbs to the city and on all the city's public transportation.

WRIGLEY FIELD
HOME OF
CHICAGO CUBS

CUBS	3	FINAL
YANKEES	2

Home of BASEBALL since 1916

The Chicago Theater is a place of great performance.
Many famous plays, musicals and concerts have taken place in this beautiful theater.

A vertical logo for Chicago Theater. It features a red, stylized archway with a yellow border. Inside the archway, the word "CHICAGO" is written in white, bold, capital letters, stacked vertically.

C
H
I
C A
G O

A photograph of a theater stage. The stage is dominated by large, heavy red curtains that are slightly parted in the center, revealing a bright light source. In the foreground, the dark silhouettes of several audience members' heads are visible, looking towards the stage. On the far left, a person is partially visible behind a microphone stand, suggesting a performance or recording session.

The Chicago Theater

The Willis Tower, which is the tallest building in Chicago, is home to the sky deck. The sky deck attraction is where visitors can walk out onto glass box platforms and look down and around to see the world below.

Lincoln Park Zoo is a free attraction for those looking for nature in the big city. At the zoo they have a wide variety of animals along with activities and zoo lights in the Christmas season.

Lincoln Park Zoo

Cloud Gate, more commonly known as “The Bean” is located in Millennium Park. The Bean is most famous for its fun shape and its reflective surface that encompasses Michigan Avenue and Millennium Park in one spot.

Navy Pier Park is the most fun packed pier in Chicago. Along with having boats that visitors can take a ride on, the park has a ferris wheel in addition to many other rides, a botanical garden, food court, and a beautiful view of the city and the lake.

NAVY PIER
PARK

North Avenue Beach is the place to be on a hot summer day in the city. Many people spend their weekends playing beach volleyball with their families and friends, or simply playing in the sand and enjoying the coolness of the refreshing water.

One of the most used forms of public transportation is the “L”. this is the train that runs through and under the city to get people here and there in a quick manner. A trip to the city is not complete without a ride on the “L”.

The city of Chicago in terms of food, is most known for their deep dish pizza. Locals call the famous dish, “pan pie”. Some of the best restaurants where you can find pan pies are the mom and pop shops hidden in the depths city.

The Museum of Science and Industry has a wide range of exhibits. They have interactive exhibits for the visitors to have hands on learning for their curiosity.

MUSEUM OF SCIENCE AND INDUSTRY

The Field Museum has exhibits with visuals from all ages ranging from the dinosaur age to modern times.

THE FIELD MUSEUM

The Chicago River walk is where people can escape from the buildings and enjoy a change in scenery. The river walk is beside a park where visitors can relax and picnic.

The Chicago Symphony Orchestra is home to the musical talent of the city. Here, the orchestra puts on musical performances.

CHICAGO
SYMPHONY
ORCHESTRA

